SUIT FOR ACCOUNTING

CHINESE PARTNERSHIP DISPUTE FROM HILO

PROTRACTED JURY TRIAL—AN HEIRRESS COMES OF AGE—TWO NEW DAMAGE SUITS FROM COLLISION.

Ah Kit vs. Lee Long before Judge Humphreys and jury outlasted yesterday. The court rose on argument relative to the admission of certain evidence. Mr. Magoon contended that defendant had a right to protect his property. Mr. Robertson rejoined that the lawful manner of so doing was not assault with an axe. The suit is for $1000 damages for assault.

T. Ahung has brought suit against the Kwong Hip Chan firm of Hilo for an accounting. It is alleged in the complaint that the manager, Chang Lee Yun, collected $3000 of advances to sugar cane planters, out of a total of $5000, and refuses to credit the amount to the firm. The dispute is over the question of whether the advances were of the partnership funds or the manager's own money. The court is asked to issue a writ to prevent Chang Lee Yun from leaving the Territory until he has made an accounting.

A. B. Wood, guardian of Genevieve Dowsett, has filed a petition for final distribution and discharge, his ward having attained her majority. The expenditures for the year were $3173.86, and the receipts $6296.46, leaving a balance of $3222.60. An inventory of the estate shows 100 $1000 bonds in the Dowsett Co., 750 shares of capital stock of the same corporation, and a lot of diamonds and jewelry. T. I. Dillon was appointed master by Judge Humphreys to examine and report upon the accounts.

W. O. Smith has asked to be appointed administrator of the estate of Ethel Pauline N. Gay. The estate is a one-seventh interest in the estate of her father and mother. The brothers and sisters are named as heirs.

An inventory has been filed by W. O. Smith, administrator of the estate of James H. Katili, showing cash $3111.25 and ten shares of Waiakua stock, $565.

Two new damage suits were filed in the Federal Court yesterday against the Wilder's Steamship Co. for losses alleged to have been sustained by reason of the collision between the Wilder's ship and the Claudine over two years ago. G. W. Harrison, who was first mate on the barkentine at the time of the accident, claims to have lost personal effects to the value of $248.50. Thomas Tortensen, who was carpenter on the vessel, claims damages to the amount of $295.95, the greater amount being for the loss of his tools.

MAUITES BEATEN AGAIN

ONLY MADE HALF OF LOCAL TEAM'S SCORE

MANA DID GOOD WORK BEHIND BAT FOR HONOLULU AGGREGATION—VISITORS SHOW-ED THEIR WEAKNESS.

The baseball game between the All-Maui and All-Honolulu teams took place on the Punahou campus yesterday afternoon and once more it was demonstrated that Maui will have to practice a lot before it can touch any of the teams of the league, the Artillery boys excepted.

Yesterday's Honolulu team was made up of players from the Punahou, Custom House and Maile-Hima teams and, although they had never practiced together, they had seen so much of each others play during the regular games that they did very well. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, president of the Honolulu Athletic Club team, was one of the fielders for the Honolulu aggregation and every time he went to the bat, he succeeded in hitting the ball.

Castle for the Honolulu team did very good work in the box while Mana of the Maile-Hima did the work behind the bat. He did exceedingly well and would make a fine catcher for any team of the league. His judgment is good and he never loses his head, playing at all times as if there were three men on bases, nobody out and a heavy hitter at the plate.

Jackson of the Maui team is a good pitcher but he will have to learn a little more about work in the box before he attempts again to bump up against a Honolulu team. He has some good curves but there is not much force in them as in the case of Barney Joy of the Honolulu team.

While the crowd that turned out to the game yesterday was not a very large one still it made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in size. The band was present and furnished some excellent music during the progress of the game.

The summary of the game is as follows:

TEACHING ENGLISH

C. W. Baldwin, inspector of public schools on the island of Hawaii gave a very interesting talk at the normal school yesterday on the subject: "Teaching English to non-English speaking children." Among other things, Mr. Baldwin said:

"Owing to the peculiar difficulties of the English language for Hawaiians, the question that we have had to face has been not only a complex one, but a unique one as well. In a few years from now this question of language will not trouble us, for then these Hawaiians will have made English their mother tongue. But before such a time comes we teachers have upon our shoulders the responsibility of giving to our pupils a language, which acquired, will mean to them a chance in life's battle—the opportunity for an equality of footing with the white man—deprived of which they must remain the servants and we the served. There is, too, in this the opening of the door to a true civilization and the lifting of the people to a higher plane, by giving them access to a literature. Were there a way by which we could give to our pupils the English language, and yet you and I, through ignorance or wantonness of what else, did not avail ourselves of that way, we should be depriving these children of things that rightfully belong to them and, yes, of life itself."

"That we have signally failed in this respect in the past needs no argument. Look at the children turned out of the government schools. Unless they have gone to some advanced school or to places where they must of necessity use the English language, they have but the veriest smattering of that language. Such is the truth of the bulk of our schools today—the Portuguese and Japanese leave them with a working vocabulary, but not so the Hawaiians."

"What we should do, or rather the need is that we give to these Hawaiian children—and the rest as well—who are placed in our care, not only a speaking but also a reading knowledge of the language, a taste for good literature, but we cannot do this latter without doing the former. In time, as I have already intimated, this question will solve itself, when those people speak this language in their own homes as their mother tongue. But is it for us to go on contentedly with what we are doing, saying to ourselves, 'It will be all right by and by?' Surely, no; for by not hastening may we not be depriving some soul of an inheritance that is its by right?"
